CITY NEWS.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION WILL MEET AT
Louisville, June 28, 1864.

THE ATTACK UPON THE GERRILLAS.—In yesterday's Democrat we made mention of the gerrillas on the Lower Ohio, and the scene being fired into at Harveysville. We have since learned that the boat was fired into by citizens, under the following circumstances: A negro went to Harveysville and opened a recruiting office for negro soldiers, and this so exasperated the citizens that they drove the negro recruiter from the town. They afterwards learned that he managed to get aboard of the Boat, and they ordered the boat to stop, which being refused, they fired at the negro, who was at this time seen on the lower deck.
The engineer, Mr. Burkhardt, was slightly injured by a spent ball, and a foreman, whose name we did not learn, was shot through the calf of the leg. The above are the facts as related to us by a gentleman who was at Harveys-ville at the time.

ARREST OF A SUSPICIOUS CHARACTER.—Yesterday Henderson was arrested and taken before the Provost Marshal as a dangerous character. He is said to have been taken from some point in Tennessee, and at the time of his arrest had in his possession over one thousand dollars in gold. Since his stay in our city, which has been short, his actions have been very suspicious, and he has been closely watched by our detectives. There are some facts connected with this man which go to show that he has been connected with some of the bands of guerrillas which have committed many depredations in the State of Tennessee, and he was last evening sent to Nashville, where his case will be thoroughly investigated.

STEAMBOAT ROBBERY.—The America arrived from the Cumberland river last evening.
On her way up a number of passengers were robbed of their watches and several hundred dollars in money. The boat had on board a regiment of soldiers who had lately been sent off, and it was them that were the sufferers.
At some point on the Cumberland river seven persons got aboard, and they were suspected as the thieves. They were placed under arrest on the boat, and a court, consisting of the passengers, convened for their trial. Some of them were released, and the remainder of them were under arrest when the boat passed here last evening.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, June 21.
Coleman Cresson, drunk and disorderly conduct; $300 for six months.
William Smith, Jr., stealing a bolt of linen from Smith & Wade; continued.
Jacob Springer, presented as a suspected felony; held in $300 for six months.
Taylor Kirby, presented as a suspected felony; $300 for good behavior for three months.
A continued case from yesterday against Richard Craig, charged with stealing pants, etc., from James McGarry, at the Transfer stable, on Center street; only a petit larceny; held to answer a misdemeanor in $300 in this court.

Our Police Court daily presents many new phases in human life, and at this place many lessons may be learned. It is unusual sometimes to see the diversity of opinions in regard to the value of some article when a man is presented on the charge of felony.
Yesterday a man was before the Police Court charged with stealing a pair of pants. The charge of the theft was clearly proved, and the defense then raised the point as to the value of the stolen goods. Some eight or ten talents were brought into court, which value the pants, but no two agreed, their value being fixed at from $5 to $7.

GRAND MASONIC FESTIVAL.—The Mt. Zion Lodge, No. 147, has made arrangements for a grand festival at Woodland Garden, St. John's day, the 24th of June. The members of this lodge are requested to meet at their hall at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 24th instant.
Brethren of sister lodges in good standing are invited to participate. The festival tickets can be had at a number of different places designated in the advertisement to be found under the head of "Amusements" in our columns this morning.

THE MORRIS TRIAL.—The evidence in this case has been closed, and the argument for both the prosecution and defense heard. The record, which is large, has been received, and the case submitted to the Court, who have it under deliberation. We will publish the findings and sentences of the Court as soon as they are approved by the Commanding General.

BARRACKS ITEMS.—The only receipts at the barracks yesterday were fifty convalescents and recruits from different points, twelve recruits from Park Barracks, and three deserters from Indianapolis. The transfers were twenty-nine convalescents and recruits to the front, and nine prisoners sent off in iron—eight to Nashville and one to Frankfort.

The train which arrived from Nashville yesterday brought up as prisoners twenty-two convalesced officers, and two hundred and fifty-seven privates and non-commissioned officers, who were lately captured at the front. They were sent to the military prison, where they will be confined until sent to the different points at the North.

Major Thos. Chenoweth, Capt. C. C.
Morgan, Surgeon Good and Lieut. Voorhees, of the rebel army, who were taken by General Barbidge when they came to Falmouth under a flag of truce, were last evening sent to Indianapolis, where they will be retained until their case is decided by the Secretary of War, to whom it has been referred.

"Anne and Her Master" is the title of a love story from Blackwood's Magazine, just issued by G. P. Putnam, and adapted for railroad reading. It is a pleasant story, and can be bought for twenty cents.

We direct the attention of members of the different Trade Unions to the advertisement of a basket picnic at Spring Garden, to be given on Monday next, the 27th of June.

THE KILLING OF COLONEL JAMES POOLE AT HENDERSON, KY., BY GUERRILLAS.—The New Albany Ledger of the 21st furnishes the particulars as follows of a most daring outrage which was committed by guerrillas at Henderson, Ky., on Saturday night. Colonel James Poole, recently commissioned as Colonel of the militia of Henderson county, last week he issued an order for the organization of the same.
Saturday night, about 11 o'clock, while Poole was standing in the center of the Union hotel, in Henderson (where he was boarding), taking a drink of water, three guerrillas came in at the door and advanced up to him. One got on one side of him, one on the other, and the third behind him. The one on his left side asked, "Are you Mr. Poole, Capt. Jim Poole?" He answered, "I am." The guerrilla replied, "Then you are my prisoner." Poole replied, "I reckon not," and commenced drawing his pistol. Immediately the guerrillas fired three shots. After an interval of four or five seconds they began firing again, then retreated towards the door and through it. Poole persisted to the door, fired one shot and fell. He was shot through the breast and thigh, and died in about a minute after falling.

The guerrillas ran up the street about two squares and then returned with fifteen or twenty others. They did no other damage at the hotel, but robbed the store of G. A. Meyer & Sons of several guns, also some pistols and ammunition, and captured Capt. Sam. Allen, late of the Eighth Kentucky cavalry, and took him away with them. They also captured James Schaeffer, a recruit in the sixth month service in Kentucky. The number of guerrillas is variously estimated, but from the most reliable accounts there were about twenty-five in all. So far as this relates to Col. Poole's death, this above was the evidence elicited before the coroner's jury Sunday morning. The guerrillas were under command of one Capt.
January from Union county.

S. S. Slone, who above was in type, a reporter connected with the city that Lieutenant Goode, of the United States Navy, who had command of a gunboat on the Lower Ohio, had been captured by the guerrillas and executed. We were unable to learn any particulars in regard to this affair, and give the report as we heard it from passengers who ar-

A QUEER AND INTERESTING CASE.—The entire press of the country for some time has been filled with notices of runaways and elopements, which have presented many new and startling phases, but the one which we are about to relate eclipses everything of the kind that we remember to have seen. On yesterday morning a man by the name of Thomas Ogg, of the United States Army, who had command of a gunboat on the Lower Ohio, had been captured by the guerrillas and ex-

After his arrest he made a full confession, and in this is the interesting part of the story.
Ogg has living in the county of Madison an uncle who, being called away on business, requested his nephew to remain at his house for the protection of his wife and three children, which Ogg gladly consented to do.
After the old man left, Ogg devoted his time to his aunt, feeling as he did, reciproc-ated, and the two agreed upon an elopement, and arrangements were soon completed for the same. The lady, whose name we did not learn, before she left Richmond, Ky., procured, under the credit of her husband, some $400 worth of goods, and Ogg stole the horses.
The two came to this city and put up at the St. Glend hotel, reporting themselves as man and wife. The greater portion of the stolen goods were recovered and the man arrested as above stated. The parties are said to have been married just before they left Richmond under assumed names.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.—The following transfers of real estate were made in the city of Louisville and county of Jefferson from the 15th to the 21st inst:

Samuel Caswell to Jno. H. Tuleman, 30 by 116 feet, on Preston street, between Broad and Shelby, $1,500	1,500
Jno. Hamley to the Louisville Pianos As- sociation, 35 feet 1 1/2 inches by 140 feet, on Chestnut street, between 14th and 15th, $1,500	1,500
J. P. Speed to J. D. Guthrie, 20 by 101 feet, on Ninth street, between Wal- nut and Broadway, $1,000	1,000
A. Schneider's heirs to Gottfried Wolf, 20 by 24 feet, on Main street, between First and Second, $1,000	1,000

J. C. Bullitt & Co. to J. M. Armstrong, lot No. 9, fronting 105 by 80 feet on Jefferson street, $1,100	1,100
H. A. Woollet to Harry Goode, 3 acres and 1/2 on Jefferson street, $1,000	1,000
H. J. Finley to J. V. Conn, 65 acres and 1/2 poles in Jefferson county, $200	200
George Overmire to J. M. Armstrong, 185 1/2 by 100 feet, on Jefferson street, be- tween Shelby and Campbell, $75	75

A THIRTING NAGRO.—Of late a number of stores in this city have been robbed of large amounts of goods, and although the robberies were supposed to be the work of burglars, no clue could be obtained as to how or where the thieves entered the stores. The police were notified of the robberies, and a number of stores were watched for days and nights, and although goods continued to be missed, no clue could be obtained as to the thieves.
On several occasions goods have been missed from the dry goods store of Smith & Wade, and until yesterday morning the proprietors of the store were unable to account for the missing goods, when they discovered the porter, who is a negro, leaving with his coat on his arm, which appeared to contain a bundle. He was stopped, and wrapped neatly in the coat was a bundle of fine linen. The facts were made known to officer Gilchrist, and yesterday he arrested the negro and lodged him in jail. His name is William, and he is a slave of Mr. Sparks. His case will be investigated before Judge Johnson this morning.

INCREASED ATTENTION.—At the Composition office Book Room they continue to show the greatest magnanimity that can be shown in business. Mr. Smith, the proprietor of the establishment, has been spending the last few weeks in the principal cities of the East, and has added greatly to the assortment of books and goods that are given as gifts, among which are many articles of surpassing beauty and gems delicately wrought, picture and ornamental ware, which are gratuitously given to purchasers of books. The stock of books at present for sale at the Composition is as great and varied as any could wish to see.
There is scarcely a man or woman but can find an appropriate book, whether they are fond of religion, romance or history. Each purchaser is the recipient of a gift of which the intrinsic value may be much greater than the price of the book. There is given with each purchase of a thousand (at retail prices) gift to the amount of three hundred dollars (at cost), thus offering inducements above all others.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—BURET OF MR. COOKE.
The Arlington, Kelly and Lord band of music continues to be the great attraction of our city, and their audience increases nightly, the theatre being crowded to overflowing last night. The "Take-it-and-leave-it" was again received with shows of applause. It is an excellent burlesque, and like all others given by the company, it has been put upon the stage in fine style. It is the last of this excellent troupe in our city, and the those of our citizens who have not seen them should not let this opportunity pass. To-night the gentlemanly manager of this company, Mr. S.
Cooke, will be tendered a grand complimentary dinner by a gentleman of energy and bounty. Mr. Cooke is a gentleman of high social position, and we hope that he will receive such a benefit as his merits deserve.
The last selected for the occasion is an excellent one.

LAST NIGHT OF THE VANDERBILT TROUPE.—Masonic Temple was again crowded last night, to witness the wonderful performance of the Vanderbilt Combination Troupe. The entertainment given by this troupe is different from that of any other, and is very attractive. The troupe is composed of talented artists, who are proficient in their profession. This is the last day of the troupe in our city, and no one who has a few hours to spare can spend it more profitably than by attending the performance of this troupe. The troupe is made up of half-past six o'clock this evening, and an entertainment given at half-past seven. In addition to the varied entertainment given, every person who attends has a chance of drawing some valuable prize.

(For the Louisville Democrat.)
The Tobacco Crop.
BURLINGTON, KY., June 18.
The success attending the culture of tobacco in this section last year, and the highly remarkable prices received, has induced many not heretofore engaged in raising the article to embark in it. But as many are sorry to inform you from careful inquiry through this and adjoining counties, that the prospect thus far is discouraging in the extreme. Those who have not yet sown their seed, and who are waiting for it to uniformly, be compelled to abandon all hope of success, the crop-worm and grasshopper have done complete havoc, and nearly destroyed them. In addition to this, the almost unprecedented drought has compounded the disaster, and the result is that there is much less tobacco than was expected.
If you think proper to publish this you will do a favor on many readers in this neighborhood, and oblige.

GUERRILLAS ON THE LOWER OHIO.—The guerrillas on the Lower Ohio are becoming more troublesome every day, and no boats coming up the Ohio are now allowed to land at any point on the Kentucky side. When the Star Eagle passed up, there was some excitement at Cloverport, occasioned by some four hundred guerrillas being a few miles back of that place. A perfect reign of terror exists all along the river between Henderson and Salt river, and every boat that arrives from below brings up a large number of citizens who are fleeing from their homes in fear of being conscripted into the rebel army. goods from the most celebrated houses.

A SPECIFIC REMEDY.—The evidence in favor of Harley's sarsaparilla is of the most overwhelming and convincing character. In every corner of our country it is regarded as a bleeding, and has done more for the removal of disease than any one medicine on record.
Its potent agency in the cure of scrofula, dyspepsia, indigestion, and all other diseases of the blood, is well known to all who have tried it. It is sold by all Druggists and Grocers.

CONTINUED.—I have used Harley's "worm candy" in my family with great success in relieving my children of worms, and recommend all parents to try it when required with their children. I believe it to be the best thing I have ever used as a remedy.
